The Liturgy of the Word

We sit for The First Reading

A Reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

Ecclesiasticus

Ecclesiasticus Ch27 v30-Ch28 v7

Resentment and anger, these are foul things, and both are found with the sinner. He who exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord, who keeps strict account of sin. Forgive your neighbour the hurt he does you, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven. If a man nurses anger against another, can he then demand compassion from the Lord? Showing no pity for a man like himself, can he then plead for his own sins? Mere creature of flesh, he cherishes resentment; who will forgive him his sins? Remember the last things, and stop hating, remember dissolution and death, and live by the commandments. Remember the commandments, and do not bear your neighbour ill-will; remember the covenant of the Most High, and overlook the offence.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Holy Mary, Mother of God pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen

Behold the handmaid of the Lord
Be it unto me according to thy word

Holy Mary, Mother of God pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

And the Word was made flesh.
and dwelt among us.

Hail Mary, full of grace the Lord is with thee Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus

Holy Mary, Mother of God pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Pray for us O Holy Mother of God
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ

Pour forth we beseech thee O Lord thy grace into our hearts that as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by his +Cross and Passion, we may be brought to the glory of His Resurrection; through the same, Jesus Christ our Lord
Amen

*Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 94*

The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.

The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord, All my being, bless his holy name. My soul give thanks to the Lord And never forget all his blessings
The Lord is compassion...

It is he who forgives all your guilt, Who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, Who crowns you with love and compassion.

The Lord is compassion...

His wrath will come to an end; He will not be angry for ever. He does not treat us according to our sins,

Nor repay us according to our faults.
The Lord is compassion...

For as the heavens are high above the earth So strong is his love for those who fear him.

As far as the east is from the west So far does he remove our sins.

The Lord is compassion and love, Slow to anger and rich in mercy.

*Second Reading
A Reading from Saint Paul's letter to the Romans
Romans Ch14 vv7-9*

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life: it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. The word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

We stand for the Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Speak, Lord, your servant is listening: you have the message of eternal life.
Alleluia!

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your spirit.

+A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew
Matthew Ch18 vv21-35

Peter went up to Jesus and said, 'Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times.

'And so the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants. When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents; but he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt. At this, the servant threw himself down at his master's feet. "Give me time" he said "and I will pay the whole sum." And the servant's master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt. Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii; and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him. "Pay what you owe me" he said. His fellow servant fell at his feet and implored him, saying, "Give me time and I will pay you." But the other would not agree; on the contrary, he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him. Then the master sent for him. "You wicked servant," he said "I cancelled all that debt of yours when you appealed to me. Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow servant just as I had pity on you?" And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt. And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.'

The Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
