Masses at Bolton

There will be no midweek Masses at Bolton on either Tuesday or Thursday until further notice due to the current Pandemic.

Lockdown

Whilst the Government has permitted churches to remain open during the current lockdown and we rejoice, it is important that we do not become complacent and that we adhere to all the rules so that we ensure the safety of one another and the continued availability of the church for worship and prayer. Keep safe and keep others safe.

People in need.

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer or practical help at this time, please contact one of the clergy. Many people have volunteered to help where they can and all of us have the ability to pray for one another in this time of uncertainty.

The Liturgy of the Word

We sit for The First Reading

A Reading from the book of the Prophet Jonah

Jonah 3:1-5,10

The word of the Lord was addressed to Jonah: 'Up!' he said 'Go to Nineveh, the great city, and preach to them as I told you to.' Jonah set out and went to Nineveh in obedience to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was a city great beyond compare: it took three days to cross it. Jonah went on into the city, making a day's journey. He preached in these words, 'Only forty days more and Nineveh is going to be destroyed.' And the people of Nineveh believed in God; they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least. God saw their efforts to renounce their evil behaviour, and God relented: he did not inflict on them the disaster which he had threatened.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm : 24

Lord, make me know your ways.

Lord, make me know your ways.

Lord, make me know your ways.

Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk in your truth, and teach me: for you are God my saviour.

Lord, make me know your ways.

Remember your mercy, Lord, and the love you have shown from of old. In your love remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord.
Lord, make me know your ways.

The Lord is good and upright. He shows the path to those who stray, He guides the humble in the right path, He teaches his way to the poor.
Lord, make me know your ways.

Second Reading

A Reading from the first letter of S. Paul to the Corinthians

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

The world as we know it is passing away Brothers: our time is growing short. Those who have wives should live as though they had none, and those who mourn should live as though they had nothing to mourn for; those who are enjoying life should live as though there were nothing to laugh about; those whose life is buying things should live as though they had nothing of their own; and those who have to deal with the world should not become engrossed in it. I say this because the world as we know it is passing away.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

We stand for the Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is close at hand: repent, and believe the Good News.

Alleluia!

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your spirit.

+A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark

Mark 1:14-20

Glory to you, O Lord

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.' As he was walking along by the Sea of Galilee he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net in the lake – for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, ‘Follow me and I will make you into fishers of men.’ And at once they left their nets and followed him. Going on a little further, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they too were in their boat, mending their nets. He called them at once and, leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the men he employed, they went after him.
