Holy Mary, Mother of God pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Pray for us O Holy Mother of God That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ

Pour forth we beseech thee O Lord thy grace into our hearts that as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by his Cross and Passion, we may be brought to the glory of His Resurrection; through the same, Jesus Christ our Lord Amen

We sing our first Hymn

God of all the ages,
hallowed be thy name;
Sainly lives are pages
in thy book of fame;

Poets, priests and preachers,
scribes with patient pen,
Humble-hearted teachers
of their fellow men;
In their generation
making straight the road,
Builders of the nation,
workers with our God.

From the Roman city
was Augustine sent,
Messenger of Pity
to the men of Kent;
Nor were heralds silent
in the distant north,
From Iona's Island
to the Firth of Forth.
Mark we well the story
how the Word was sent,
Giving God the glory
in each Sacrament.

Hilda's Abbey ancient Stands by Whitby's shore,
Whence God called the patient
Caedmon forth of yore;
From the Sheepfolds brought him,
Like the Shepherd-King;

By a vision taught him
Songs of Christ to sing;
Chanting and reciting
Truths the Spirit taught,
Setting down in writing
Wonders God had wrought.

Thus two lamps were lighted,
south and north they shone
Till one man united Britain's Church in one;
Men of Sussex bless him,
witness to his work,
Hexham's stones confess him
Wilfrid, Saint of York.
Lord of our salvation
be thou still our stay,
While each generation
treads the pilgrim way.

Priest: ✠ In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

People: Amen

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your spirit.

The Mass is introduced along with its intention and theme and we are invited to call to mind our sins using these or similar words

Priest: Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

People: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And, striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

“Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you”
1 Thessalonians Ch5 vv17-18.

In this leaflet it is hoped that, as a parish, we will find some direction and focus for our prayers that through praying together for the same things and the same people we may find a common purpose in responding to the needs of our world and our parish and place ourselves more readily into the hands of God.
It is hoped that either weekly or daily we can take some time together to pray wherever we are for the needs of our Church, our World, our parish, the individuals we come across and the departed. For, 'all things are possible for God'.

If you would like anyone or anything added to this prayer list, please hand it to the vicar in writing, the list will be revised weekly.

The Liturgy of the Word

We sit for The First Reading

A reading from the prophet Isaiah Isaiah Ch61: 1-3

The Spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to build up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to the captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord, a day of vengeance for our God, to comfort all those who mourn and give them for ashes a garland; for mourning robe the oil of gladness, for despondency, praise.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 89(90):12-17

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord: through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth, of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever, that your truth is firmly established as the heavens.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn to David my servant: I will establish your dynasty for ever and set up your throne through all ages.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I have found David my servant and with my holy oil anointed him. My hand shall always be with him and my arm shall make him strong.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

My truth and my love shall be with him; by my name his might shall be exalted. He will say to me: "You are my father, my God the rock who saves me."

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of S. Paul to the Corinthians

1 Corinthians Ch4:1-5

People must think of us as Christ's servants, the stewards entrusted with the mysteries of God. What is expected of stewards is that each one should be found worthy of his trust. Not that it makes the slightest difference to me whether you, or indeed any human tribunal, find me worthy, or not. I will not even pass judgement on myself. True, my conscience does not reproach me at all, but that does not prove that I am acquitted: the Lord alone is my judge. There must be no passing of premature judgement. Leave that until the Lord comes: he will light up all that is hidden in the dark and reveal the secret intentions of men's hearts. Then will be the time for each one to have what ever praise he deserves, from God. The word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

We stand for the Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Go, make disciples of all the nations, says the Lord: I am with you always, yes, to the end of time.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your spirit.

✠ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew Matthew 10:17-27

Glory to you, O Lord

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time".

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

The Homily now follows

We sit

We stand for

The Profession of Faith (Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the Resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
