

LENT V YEAR C

(Missal page 181)

THE PARISH MASS

The Introductory Rites

When the bell rings we stand to sing the first Hymn

The royal banners forward go,
The Cross shines forth in mystic glow,
Where he in flesh, our flesh who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid.

Where deep for us the spear was dyed, Life's torrent rushing from his side,
To wash us in that precious flood,
Where mingled water flowed, and blood.

Fulfilled is all that David told In true prophetic song of old,
The universal Lord is he,
Who reigns and triumphs from the tree.

O Tree of beauty, Tree of light,
O Tree with royal purple dight,
Elect on whose triumphal breast
Those holy limbs should find their rest!

We gather together as Jesus commanded us in order to celebrate his living presence amongst us, and to participate in his risen life by sharing his body and blood. He calls us together, we hear His word in scripture, we give thanks for all that He has given us and we pray for the needs of His world. As we celebrate all that God has done for us in Jesus, we have the opportunity to feed on Him and so become more like Him, joining with Him and the hosts of Heaven in this act of love and worship. It is our custom to spend time in quiet reflection before each of our services, this enables us to focus our minds on our worship and prepare to receive the Lord Jesus afresh in our lives.

LENT

Lent is the great Season of Grace in the Church's Year during which we prepare physically and spiritually for the great events of Our Lord's Passion, Death and Resurrection by fasting, prayer and works of charity. Our Mass takes on a more sombre tone to focus our minds on our own unworthiness of the great things God does for us in His Son, so that we may be a worthy and holy people devoted to Him.

For the gift of Repentance

Daily

For Peter Bishop of Sheffield
For Tony Bishop of Wakefield
For the Unity of Christ's Church
For our Church Wardens and PCC members
For the growth of our Christian Family
For the poor, the sick and those with no hope
For any who need our prayers
For the dead
For our families
For ourselves

On whose dear arms, so widely flung,
The weight of this world's ransom hung,
The price of humankind to pay
And spoil the spoiler of his prey.

O Cross, our one reliance, hail!
So may thy power with us prevail
To give new virtue to the saint,
And pardon to the penitent.

To thee, eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done:
Whom by thy Cross thou dost restore,
Preserve and govern evermore. Amen.

Priest: ✠ In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

People: Amen

Priest: The Lord be with you
People: And with your spirit.

The Mass is introduced along with its intention and theme and we are invited to call to mind our sins using these or similar words

acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

call sinners. Christ have mercy

People: Christ have mercy

Choir: You are seated at the right hand of the Father, to intercede for us.
Lord have mercy

People: Lord Have mercy

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to everlasting life.

People: Amen.

The Collect or prayer for the day

Priest: By your help, we beseech you, Lord our God, may we walk eagerly in that same charity with which, out of love for the world, your Son handed himself over to death.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

We sit for The First Reading

A reading from the book of the Prophet Joshua
Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the Lord, who made a way through the sea, a path in the great waters; who put chariots and horse in the field and a powerful army which lay there never to rise again, snuffed out, put out like a wick: No need to recall the past, no need to think about what was done before. See, I am doing a new deed, even now it comes to light; can you not see it? Yes, I am making a road in the wilderness, paths in the wilds. The wild beasts will honour me, jackals and ostriches, because I am putting water in the wilderness (rivers in the wild) to give my chosen people drink. The people I have formed for myself will sing my praises.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 125(126)

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, it seemed like a dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs.

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

“Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you” 1 Thessalonians Ch5 vv17-18.

In this leaflet it is hoped that, as a parish, we will find some direction and focus for our prayers that through praying together for the same things and the same people we may find a common purpose in responding to the needs of our world and our parish and place ourselves more readily into the hands of God.

It is hoped that either weekly or daily we can take some time together to pray wherever we are for the needs of our Church, our World, our parish, the individuals we come across and the departed. For, ‘all things are possible for God’.

If you would like anyone or anything added to this prayer list, please hand it to the vicar in writing, the list will be revised weekly.

The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels the Lord worked for them!'
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land.

Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap.

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing;
they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves.

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

The Second Reading

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians
Philippians 3:8-14

I believe nothing can happen that will outweigh the supreme advantage of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For him I have accepted the loss of everything, and I look on everything as so much rubbish if only I can have Christ and be given a place in him. I am no longer trying for perfection by my own efforts, the perfection that comes from the Law, but I want only the perfection that comes through faith in Christ, and is from God and based on faith. All I want is to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and to share his sufferings by reproducing the pattern of his death. That is the way I can hope to take my place in the resurrection of the dead. Not that I have become perfect yet: I have not yet won, but I am still running, trying to capture the prize for which Christ Jesus captured me. I can assure you my brothers, I am far from thinking that I have already won. All I can say is that I forget the past and I strain ahead for what is still to come; I am racing for the finish, for the prize to which God calls us upwards to receive in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

We stand for the Gospel Acclamation

Choir: Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory, praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory

People: Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory, praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory

Choir: Now, now – it is the Lord who speaks – come back to me with all your heart, for I am all tenderness and compassion.

People: Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory, praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your spirit.

✠ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

John 8:1-11

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. At daybreak he appeared in the Temple again; and as all the people came to him, he sat down and began to teach them. The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman along who had been caught committing adultery; and making her stand there in full view of everybody, they said to Jesus, 'Master, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery, and Moses has ordered us in the Law to condemn women like this to death by stoning. What have you to say?' They asked him this as a test, looking for something to use against him. But Jesus bent down and started writing on the ground with his finger. As they persisted with their question, he looked up and said, 'If there is one of you who has not sinned, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.' Then he bent down and wrote on the ground again. When they heard this they went away one by one, beginning with the eldest, until Jesus was left alone with the woman, who remained standing there. He looked up and said, 'Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?' 'No one, sir' she replied. 'Neither do I condemn you,' said Jesus 'go away, and do not sin any more.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the

to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

The Bidding Prayers now follow

Response

Priest: Lord in your mercy

People: Hear our prayer.

Priest: ✠Rest eternal grant unto them
O Lord

People: and let light perpetual shine upon them

Priest: May they rest in peace

People: Amen

People: Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

We sing the Offertory Hymn

Here is love, vast as the ocean, loving-kindness as the flood,
when the Prince of Life, our Ransom, shed for us His precious blood.
Who His love will not remember?
Who can cease to sing His praise?
He can never be forgotten throughout heav'n's eternal days.

On the mount of crucifixion fountains opened deep and wide; through the floodgates of God's mercy flowed a vast and gracious tide.
Grace and love, like mighty rivers, poured incessant from above, and heav'n's peace and perfect justice kissed a guilty world in love.

Let us all Thy love accepting,
Love Thee ever all my days;
Let me seek Thy kingdom only
And my life be to Thy praise;
Thou alone shalt be my glory,
Nothing in the world I see.
Thou hast cleansed and sanctified me,
Thou Thyself hast set me free.

Hail Mary, full of grace the Lord is with thee Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus Holy Mary, Mother of God pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord

Pray for us O Holy Mother of God
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ

Amen

We sing the final Hymn

Glory be to Jesus,
Who, in bitter pains,
Poured for me the life-blood
From his sacred veins.

Grace and life eternal In that Blood I find;
Blest be his compassion,
Infinitely kind.

Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torment
Doth the world redeem.

Abel's blood for vengeance Pleaded to the skies;
But the Blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.

Of as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion
Terror-struck departs.

Of as earth exulting Wafts its praise on high,
Hell with terror trembles,
Heaven is filled with joy.

Lift ye then your voices;
Swell the mighty flood;
Louder still and louder Praise the precious Blood.
