Daily

For the dead
For our families
For Peter Bishop of Sheffield
For Tony Bishop of Wakefield
For the Unity of Christ's Church For our Church Wardens and PCC members For the growth of our Christian Family For the poor, the sick and those with no hope For any who need our prayers
For ourselves

From the Roman city was Augustine sent, Messenger of Pity
to the men of Kent; Nor were heralds silent in the distant north,
From Iona's Island
to the Firth of Forth.
Mark we well the story
how the Word was sent, Giving God the glory in each Sacrament.

Hilda's Abbey ancient Stands by Whitby's shore, Whence God called the patient Caedmon forth of yore;
From the Sheepfolds brought him,
Like the Shepherd-King;
By a vision taught him Songs of Christ to sing;
Chanting and reciting Truths the Spirit taught, Setting down in writing Wonders God had wrought.

Thus two lamps were lighted, south and north they shone Till one man united Britain's Church in one; Men of Sussex bless him, witness to his work, Hexham's stones confess him Wilfrid, Saint of York.
Lord of our salvation be thou still our stay, While each generation treads the pilgrim way.

The Mass is introduced along with its intention and theme and we call to mind our sins

Priest: Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

People: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, they say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever- Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and my brothers and sisters, to for me to the Lord our God.

you,
pray

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

People: Amen.

People: Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison,
Christe eleison, Christe eleison Christe eleison,
Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison,
Kyrie eleison,

The Gloria in excelsis now follows

People: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace,
to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

“Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you” 1 Thessalonians Ch5 vv17-18.

In this leaflet it is hoped that, as a parish, we will find some direction and focus for our prayers that through praying together for the same things and the same people we may find a common purpose in responding to the needs of our world and our parish and place ourselves more readily into the hands of God.

It is hoped that either weekly or daily we can take some time together to pray wherever we are for the needs of our Church, our World, our parish, the individuals we come across and the departed. For, ‘all things are possible for God’.

If you would like anyone or anything added to this prayer list, please hand it to the vicar in writing, the list will be revised weekly.

Let us pray

O God, who endowed Saint Wilfrid with outstanding graces for the building up of your Church, grant that by the help of his prayers we may, like him, weather every storm and be brought at the last into the haven of your peace.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

We sit for The First Reading

A reading from the prophet Isaiah Isaiah Ch61: 1-3

The Spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to build up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to the captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord, a day of vengeance for our God, to comfort all those who mourn and give them for ashes a garland; for mourning robe the oil of gladness, for despondency, praise.
The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 89(90):12-17

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord: through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth, of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever, that your truth is firmly established as the heavens.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn to David my servant: I will establish your dynasty for ever and set up your throne through all ages.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

I have found David my servant and with my holy oil anointed him. My hand shall always be with him and my arm shall make him strong.

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

My truth and my love shall be with him; by my name his might shall be exalted. He will say to me: "You are my father, my God the rock who saves me."

I will sing for ever, for ever, for ever, of your love, O Lord.

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of S. Paul to the Corinthians

1 Corinthians Ch4:1-5

People must think of us as Christ's servants, the stewards entrusted with the mysteries of God. What is expected of stewards is that each one should be found worthy of his trust. Not that it makes the slightest difference to me whether you, or indeed any human tribunal, find me worthy, or not. I will not even pass judgement on myself.

True, my conscience does not reproach me at all, but that does not prove that I am acquitted: the Lord alone is my judge.

There must be no passing of premature judgement. Leave that until the Lord comes: he will light up all that is hidden in the dark and reveal the secret intentions of men's hearts. Then will be the time for each one to have what ever praise he deserves, from God.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

We stand for the Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Go, make disciples of all the nations, says the Lord: I am with you always, yes, to the end of time.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your spirit.

✠ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew Matthew 10:17-27

Glory to you, O Lord

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time".

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
